This also includes the resumption of overflights over Greek territories after a prolonged period of more than three years without such overflights. Similarly, violations of Greek territorial waters have increased considerably, while systematic illegal fishing activities by Turkish vessels within Greek territorial waters continue to rise sharply. Incidents of direct contestation of Greek jurisdiction over search and rescue, as well as of NAVTEX-related responsibilities, persist; expresses its deep concern regarding reports from Turkish government-affiliated media and research centers that Türkiye is considering legislation to codify the "Blue Homeland" (Mavi Vatan) assertive doctrine into Turkish law; expresses its profound concern regarding Türkiye's establishment of two "national" marine parks in the Northeastern Aegean and the Eastern Mediterranean, which are contrary to international law of the sea both insofar as they extend into areas of the high seas and to the extent they encroach upon the Greek continental shelf, violating thereby the sovereign rights of an EU Member State.

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 20 a (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	20a. Notes with concern Türkiye's persistent and untenable allegations seeking to condition Greece's sovereignty over the eastern Aegean islands on their militarized status, as defined by the relevant international treaties and international law, including the fundamental right of self-defense as enshrined in the UN Charter; calls on Türkiye, in this regard, to fully respect the sovereignty, sovereign rights and jurisdiction of all EU Member States in accordance with international law, in particular the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS), which is an integral part of the EU acquis; condemns the ongoing illegal Turkish military occupation of well over a third of the Republic of Cyprus, a UN and EU member state, and Türkiye's persisting demands for a "two state solution", in blatant violation of international law and the long-established and agreed-upon UN framework; recalls the normalization of relations with all EU Member States, including the Republic of Cyprus as a necessary component of the accession process of Türkiye; further recalls the European Council Conclusions of 17-18 April 2024 under which the EU attaches particular importance to resumption of and progress in the Cyprus settlement talks for a comprehensive settlement of the Cyprus problem, within the UN framework, in accordance with the relevant UNSC resolutions and in line with the principles on which the Union is founded and the EU acquis, in further enhancing EU-Türkiye cooperation; strongly reaffirms its view that the only solution to the Cyprus problem is a just, comprehensive and viable settlement, within the long-established and agreed-upon UN framework, on the basis of a bi-communal, bi-zonal federation with political equality, as set out in the relevant UNSC Resolutions, in accordance with international law, the EU acquis and values on which the Union is founded; calls for the immediate resumption of the Cyprus settlement negotiations within the UN – agreed framework towards a mutually acceptable, just and viable solution to the Cyprus issue; urges the need to avoid any unilateral actions which undermine the settlement process; expresses appreciation for the efforts of the UN Secretary-General, including his recent visit to Cyprus, and welcomes his intention to convene an enlarged meeting aimed at resuming negotiations within the agreed framework, building on the existing body of convergences already achieved; welcomes the Commission's designation of Raffaele Fitto as Special Representative for Cyprus, as well as the March 2025 joint letter by the Presidents of the European Council and the European Commission to the UN Secretary-General, reiterating the EU's position and its readiness to actively support the UN-led process;
