to the Commission
Rule 144

Subject: EU funding for an ‘urban decolonisation walk’ in Brussels on 14 September 2024

On 3 September 2024, the association ‘Urban Decolonisation Walks in the EU’ uploaded a post advertising an ‘urban decolonisation walk’ taking place in Brussels on 14 September¹ with the aim of ‘mapping’ and ‘decolonising’ public spaces.

This political and militant publication states that the event is co-funded by the European Union.

On its website, the association writes that it will encourage young people from racial/ethnic minority backgrounds to get involved in the project and play a lead role, so that their voices are heard at local, national and European level.² In other words, the idea is to reopen the wounds of the past and sow the poisonous seeds of hate against Europeans in the hearts of some of these young people.

1. Does the Commission believe that financing a divisive project such as this will help bring peace to our societies?
2. Precisely how much money did UDEW receive from the Commission to organise this ‘decolonisation walk’?
