Question for written answer E-002886/2024
to the Commission
Rule 144
Moritz Körner (Renew)

Subject: Aftermath of 7 October 2023

Since the Hamas attack on Israel on 7 October 2023, antisemitic incidents have significantly increased in the EU. Shockingly, in the Netherlands, police chiefs have admitted to changing duty rotas to accommodate officers who have 'moral objections' to protecting Jewish events and buildings such as the National Holocaust Museum.

Would the Commission answer the following questions separately:

1. Does the Commission know in how many Member States similar behaviour by law enforcement officers has occurred? If so, in which countries? If not, why not?

2. Does the Commission know how many EU citizens have moved to Israel since 7 October 2023? If so, the Commission is asked to state how many EU citizens have moved to Israel and from which Member States? If not, why not?

3. In autumn 2024, the football match between Israel and Belgium was moved from Belgium to Hungary after several Belgian cities refused to host the game, citing security concerns. Can the Commission explain the difference between the security concerns in Belgium and Hungary and what best practices Belgium should adopt in security policies that Hungary or other Member States have already implemented?

Submitted: 12.12.2024