Question for written answer E-001620/2025
to the Commission
Rule 144
Daniel Freund (Verts/ALE)

Subject: EU funds paid to Hungary since December 2022

Since December 2022, the Commission has frozen a significant part of EU funds to Hungary because of systemic corruption, rule of law deficiencies and fundamental rights violations in that country. Further to its answer to written question E-002481/2023[1], can the Commission provide an updated overview of the amount of EU funds that has been paid to Hungary from 1 January 2023 to the present date? Please also indicate again from which budget lines the transfers were made.
