to the Commission
Rule 144
Alexander Jungbluth (ESN)

Subject: Follow-up question to E-001924/2025

In its response to question E-001924/2025[1], the Commission stated that since 2014, a sum of EUR 3.79 billion has been used to finance approximately 50 000 projects aimed at developing a European identity.

1. How many organisations received financial support from the Commission in the context of these projects and how many countries were they from?

2. Does the Commission know whether this enormous sum actually contributed to increased civic engagement, since this was a goal the Commission had outlined?

3. How does the Commission define a ‘sense of European identity’ in concrete terms?
