Subject: Inclusion of the Muslim Brotherhood in the EU list of persons, groups and entities involved in terrorist acts (Council Decision 2001/931/CFSP)

Under Article 1(4) of Council Decision 2001/931/CFSP of 27 December 2001[1], inclusion in the EU terrorist list requires a decision by a competent authority of a Member State or a third country establishing that an organisation has been investigated, prosecuted or convicted for terrorist acts.

The most recent update, Council Decision (CFSP) 2025/1577 of 29 July 2025[2], renewed the measures under the same framework.

Given reports and allegations regarding the activities of the Muslim Brotherhood and its affiliated structures within the EU, clarification is needed on the EU's current position.

In this context:

Which national judicial or administrative decisions, if any, have been communicated that could serve as a legal basis under Article 1(4) of Decision 2001/931/CFSP?
