Subject: Ceuta carnage: the deadly reality of the Pact of suppression, deportation and savage exploitation

Following the Melilla massacre, EU governments have now commended the Spanish Government for the latest deadly incident in the Spanish enclave of Ceuta, which saw 99 displaced people lose their lives and left dozens missing.

This is further proof that the barbarity of the provisions under the awful Pact on Migration and Asylum and the EU's reactionary migration policy are not managed in a 'progressive' way at all. Opening and closing the migration tap to secure cheap labour through transnational slave trade agreements is a common strategy shared by all bourgeois governments.

In view of the above, can the Commission answer the following:

1. Where does it stand on the fact that the Spanish Government proceeded with a crackdown, which left people dead or missing, with immediate mass pushbacks of refugees and migrants, with the full support of EU institutions and governments, without a prior review of asylum claims and without other basic reception procedures being followed, in violation of the Geneva Convention on Refugees?
2. Where does it stand on Nea Dimokratia's preposterous proposal to essentially completely abolish the right to asylum, citing yet another 'emergency' caused by the mass movement of refugees and migrants, which could in future be classed as a 'hybrid attack'?
3. What exactly is involved in the measures it announced to further strengthen the mandate of the repressive mechanisms Frontex and Europol at the borders, given that Schengen already has a system of mass surveillance in place which governments sometimes decide to reinforce with additional border controls, violating the rights of citizens, as well as refugees and migrants?
