EN
E-001629/2024
Answer given by Mr Reynders
on behalf of the European Commission
(13.11.2024)

Based on publicly available information, the Commission understands that a scrutiny committee for the Thuringian constitutional protection office is presently in place. The Commission also understands that, following the parliamentary elections in Thuringia in September 2024, new parliamentary committees are in the process of being constituted.