Answer given by Mr Brunner
on behalf of the European Commission
(2.4.2025)

A swift and effective implementation of the Pact on Migration and Asylum¹ (Pact) is a top priority for the Commission. Almost all Member States have submitted their national implementation plans to the Commission.

The Commission is in regular contact with all Member States and is supporting them in making sure that they will be ready to fully implement the Pact in June 2026.

The Commission will regularly inform the European Parliament and the Council about the state of play with regard to the implementation of the Pact, in line with its obligations under the Asylum and Migration Management Regulation². The Commission also kindly refers the Honourable Members to the exchanges taking place within the Working Group on Asylum – Implementation of the Pact/Common European Asylum System (Asylum Working Group) of the European Parliament Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs.
