Answer given by Mr McGrath
on behalf of the European Commission
(15.7.2025)

The funding initiatives referred to are provided under external action instruments. In the EU's external action, the majority of the transitional justice-related programmes are supported under the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation instrument (NDICI) – Global Europe and the Instrument contributing to Stability and Peace. Notably, transitional justice is supported as part of the ongoing programming phase under NDICI Global Europe, often as part of broader programmes in the field of justice and rule of law. However, such external action instruments are not applicable inside the EU.

Otherwise, the Commission wishes to refer the honourable member to its responses provided to parliamentary questions P-002838/2024¹ and P-000819/2025². There is currently no further update.
