Answer given by Executive Vice-President Séjourné
on behalf of the European Commission
(18.2.2026)

The Commission unequivocally condemns the crimes committed by the Nazis and their collaborators, and any actions that deny, distort or trivialise the Holocaust. The Commission remains firmly committed to ensure the Holocaust remembrance. As stated in its Strategy on combating antisemitism and fostering Jewish life (2021-2030)¹, the Commission will cooperate with industry and IT companies to prevent the illegal display and sale of Nazi-related symbols, memorabilia and literature online.

The Commission has not identified EU level legislation governing the specific situation described by the Honourable Member.

The Commission will continue to monitor developments and assess if additional measures may be needed.
