Question for written answer E-000336/26
to the Commission
Özlem Demirel (The Left)
(28 January 2026)

Subject: Negotiations by Frontex on working arrangements with Lebanon and Jordan

Frontex is continuing to develop its cooperation with countries outside the European Union. To this end, the formalised cooperation framework is to be extended to include Lebanon and Jordan.

1. What is the actual state of play of negotiations on working arrangements between Frontex and Lebanon and Jordan?
2. Which state bodies or institutions in Lebanon and Jordan are involved in these discussions or negotiations, and which ministries, security or administrative authorities are involved?
3. What forms of cooperation are envisaged under possible future arrangements, in particular with regard to capacity building, operational support, training or the exchange of data and situational information, and which specific public authorities would it liaise with?

Submitted: 28.1.2026

Answer given by Mr Brunner on behalf of the European Commission
(4 March 2026)

As the questions fall under the responsibility of the European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex), the Commission has asked the Agency to provide a response to the questions raised by the Honourable Member. The Commission will send the Agency's reply to the Honourable Member as soon as possible.

See annexes: Annex 1, Annex 2.
