PPE

The need for an EU strategy to counter Islamist entryism and the influence of the Muslim Brotherhood network

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 16 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

16b. Considers that the abrupt change in the European Education and Culture Executive Agency's position towards the European Network Against Racism, together with the suspension of its funding, appears to be linked to political considerations, including the organisation's positions on Palestine; stresses that this case is not an isolated incident, but reflects a broader and worrying trend of shrinking civic space, increasing political pressure through disproportionate scrutiny, administrative harassment, funding restrictions and the criminalisation of critical civil society organisations, as well as attempts to silence organisations that challenge EU institutions on issues concerning racism, Palestine, migration and Islamophobia;

Paragraph 21 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

21a. Firmly denounces UAE-led attempts to shape and influence democratic debate in Member States; is particularly concerned by the UAE's 2025 action plan, which targets Member States, including France, in the context of regional rivalries between Gulf countries; underlines that the action plan aims to impose outside narratives through an intense campaign targeting elected representatives, diplomats, media outlets, think tanks and experts who are regularly invited by the media to influence public debate;
