Paragraph 134

Motion for a resolution

134. Believes that the EU's objective to achieve climate neutrality by 2050 at the latest while enhancing its competitiveness can only be reached through deep and gradual industrial transformation; underlines that investing in industrial value chains for home-grown, affordable net-zero technologies, raw materials, innovation, skills and infrastructure within the EU is essential to support such a transformation and to increase the EU's strategic autonomy; stresses that publicly supported technologies must demonstrate a credible pathway towards substantial cost reductions at scale within realistic timeframes; underlines the importance of digital technologies in supporting industrial transformation;

Amendment

134. Believes that the EU's objective to achieve climate neutrality while enhancing its competitiveness can only be reached through gradual industrial transformation while reflecting the diverse national and regional circumstances of its Member States; underlines that investing in productivity and industrial value chains for home-grown, low- and net-zero technologies, raw materials, innovation, skills and infrastructure within the EU is essential to increase the EU's strategic autonomy; stresses that the transformation should be carried out within realistic timeframes; underlines the importance of safe digital technologies in supporting industrial transformation;
