Andrzej Halicki
General budget of the European Union for the financial year 2026 – all sections
2025/0210(BUD)

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 b (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22 b. Underlines that the Commission needs to take further timely actions to increase the EU's own resources and to fight tax avoidance; recalls that, according to the EU Tax Observatory, multinational corporations (MNEs) booked USD 1 trillion in profits in tax havens in 2022, half of which were in tax havens in the EU; calls, therefore, on the Commission and the Member States to collect the tax deficit of MNEs, namely that is the difference between what a corporation pays in taxes globally and what that corporation would have to pay if all its profits were subject to a minimum tax rate of 25 % in each of the countries where it operates;

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 c (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22 c. Underlines that both the International Monetary Fund and the European Central Bank acknowledge that more than half of current price inflation is driven by companies increasing their profit margins; calls on the Commission, therefore, to make a new proposal for an own resource based on a permanent taxation of the windfall profits of multinational enterprises in all sectors, especially the agri-food sector;

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 d (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22 d. Recalls that according to Oxfam, just 31 of the EU's wealthiest individuals emit 3,469 tons each per year through the use of their superyachts and jets; recalls that this figure is 432 times more than the average European; calls on the Commission to make a new proposal to introduce a luxury carbon tax on luxury goods, including yachts, private jets and SUVs, as a new own resource; recalls that such a tax would be socially just, help mitigate climate change and could be more effective than a classic carbon tax;

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 e (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22 e. Recalls that the Commission needs to take further timely action to increase the EU's own resources; underlines that in line with the legally binding Interinstitutional Agreement of 16 December 2020, the Commission should present a genuine tax on financial transactions which could raise more than EUR 50 billion per year, based on the details of the financial transaction tax which should have been implemented under enhanced cooperation according to the 2013 agreement;

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 h (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22 h. Notes the Commission's proposal for the taxation of large multinational corporations (the 'CORE tax'); regrets that this proposal is largely insufficient to ensure genuine corporate contribution to European public finances, as even the Commissioner for Budget, Anti-Fraud and Public Administration, Mr. Serafin, acknowledged that "it will only affect the very largest companies on a level comparable to a typical annual bonus of the CEO in such a company"; notes that the proposed contribution will amount to a maximum of 0,1 % of turnover and, most strikingly, will be capped at €750,000, irrespective of the size of the corporate group; observes that, for example, TotalEnergies would therefore pay a tax of €750,000, representing a mere 0,000567 % of its EU turnover, highlighting the inadequacy of the measure; deplores that certain Member States, including France, have opposed this CORE tax; calls on the Commission to substantially revise its CORE tax proposal to ensure meaningful and proportionate contributions from large corporations according to their real economic presence and profits within the Union.

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 24 a (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	24 a. Regrets the scarce ambition in tackling the vulnerabilities in the Union's value chains by reducing dependencies on critical inputs from non-EU countries, with the aim of achieving strategic autonomy in key sectors; deplores the lack of a dedicated budget line for securing critical raw materials essential to the battery industry; further advocates for increased future funding to reduce reliance on US Big Tech and to support the emergence of European Tech champions;
