Amendment 33
Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Rima Hassan, Marc Botenga, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7 a (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	7a. Condemns the increased manipulation and instrumentalisation of women's rights, gender-based violence and female genital mutilation to promote hateful and discriminatory speech and advance illiberal agendas;

Or. en

Amendment 34
Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Rima Hassan, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 16 a (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	16a. Denounces the human rights abuses and violations suffered by refugees and migrants; regrets that some have even been returned to the border or expelled to places where their lives were in danger in defiance of international law, including the right to asylum; denounces the attacks against NGOs that help these people and recalls that the provision of assistance to save lives is a human rights imperative that must be respected at all times and for all people in need; pays tribute, in this regard, to individuals and civil society organisations that have been providing migrants with the most basic of rights, such as the right to water, food, health, adequate shelter and other such assistance; stresses the need to establish frameworks for the protection of migrants, in particular through the opening of safe and legal routes for migrants and the granting of humanitarian visas;

Or. en

Amendment 35
Rima Hassan, Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 20

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
20. Expresses deep concern over the persistent global crisis of accountability and highlights the ongoing struggle to end impunity for violations of fundamental international human rights and humanitarian law in conflicts worldwide; reaffirms the essential neutrality and vital role of humanitarian aid in all conflict and crisis situations; highlights the grave repercussions of undermining and attacking multilateral organisations, including the UN, which risks fostering a culture of impunity and weakening both trust in and the effectiveness of the UN system; calls for the EU to defend the international legal framework and to implement robust measures to ensure adherence to these laws; is deeply concerned by the fact that the work of multilateral human rights institutions and the multilateral rules-based order faces unprecedented threats and attacks; strongly deplores the decision made by some countries to withdraw from the UN Human Rights Council and their announcements that they would not participate in the Universal Periodic Review; condemns the constant attempts to undermine and discredit the UN, its Secretary-General, its Special Rapporteurs, and its agencies, including those delivering humanitarian	20. Expresses deep concern over the persistent global crisis of accountability and highlights the ongoing struggle to end impunity for violations of fundamental international human rights and humanitarian law in conflicts worldwide; reaffirms the essential neutrality and vital role of humanitarian aid in all conflict and crisis situations; highlights the grave repercussions of undermining and attacking multilateral organisations, including the UN, which risks fostering a culture of impunity and weakening both trust in and the effectiveness of the UN system; calls for the EU to defend the international legal framework and to implement robust measures to ensure adherence to these laws; is deeply concerned by the fact that the work of multilateral human rights institutions and the multilateral rules-based order faces unprecedented threats and attacks; strongly deplores the decision made by some countries, such as the United States, to withdraw from the UN Human Rights Council and their announcements that they would not participate in the Universal Periodic Review; condemns the constant attempts to undermine and discredit the UN, its Secretary-General, its Special Rapporteurs, and its agencies, including

aid, as well as the attacks on peacekeeping missions;	those delivering humanitarian aid, as well as the attacks on peacekeeping missions; denounces the US decision to revoke or deny visas to the Palestinian authorities in the framework of the 80th Session of the UN General Assembly and reminds the US that it is bound by the 1947 Headquarters Agreement, which regulates its responsibilities as host to the UN Assembly, to allow access to UN members and officials;

Or. en

Amendment 36
Rima Hassan, Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Danilo Della Valle, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 a (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22a. Strongly condemns the growing disrespect for international law and in particular the ongoing genocide committed by the Israeli authorities in the Gaza Strip; denounces the atrocities, war crimes and serious violations of international law and international humanitarian law, including mass starvation, committed by the Israeli authorities in Gaza, the West Bank, Lebanon and Syria;

Or. en

Amendment 37
Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Rima Hassan, Danilo Della Valle, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 b (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22b. Denounces the fact that, since the start of the alleged ceasefire on 10 October 2025, Israel has killed at least 442 Palestinians and wounded another 1 235, and continues to restrict humanitarian access to the Gaza Strip; demands a real and unconditional ceasefire and the entry of necessary humanitarian aid;

Or. en

Amendment 38
Rima Hassan, Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen, Danilo Della Valle
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 c (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22c. Strongly condemns Israel's colonial settlements and its continued expansion, which violates international law and fuels Palestinian resentment; notes that according to national and international NGOs, the system of oppression and domination that the Israeli Government imposes on the Palestinian population in all areas under its control and on Palestinian refugees constitutes apartheid and is prohibited by international law; recalls the opinion issued by the International Court of Justice on 19 July 2024, which concluded that the State of Israel 'is under an obligation to immediately cease all new settlement activities and to evacuate all settlers from the Occupied Palestinian Territory'; calls on the EU Member States to demand that Israel fully end the occupation of Palestine, including East Jerusalem, and thereby pave the way for peace; reaffirms the fundamental right of the Palestinian people to self-determination, as recognised by the UN Charter;

Or. en

Amendment 39
Rima Hassan, Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen, Danilo Della Valle
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 22 d (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	22d. Is deeply worried by the United States' aggression and blatant violation of international law, following its abduction of the Venezuelan President and his wife Cilia Flores; calls for their immediate liberation; notes with deep concern that the United States violated the UN Charter three times in this incident, with military aggression against a country, the abduction of a sitting head of state and the bombing of civilians;

Or. en

Amendment 40
Rima Hassan, Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
25. Highlights that growing disrespect for international law and the politicisation of debates concerning international justice institutions, such as the ICJ and the ICC, pose an existential threat to the rules-based global order; expresses its deep concern about the increasing disregard for and polarisation around international humanitarian and human rights law; deplores the unprecedented threats faced by the ICC, in particular owing to the imposition of sanctions on its judges and staff; recalls that international law and the competent independent legal authorities are essential in upholding international justice, ensuring accountability and combating impunity, which are necessary preconditions of any reconciliation process and sustained peace;	25. Highlights that growing disrespect for international law and the politicisation of debates concerning international justice institutions, such as the ICJ and the ICC, pose an existential threat to the rules-based global order; expresses its deep concern about the increasing disregard for and polarisation around international humanitarian and human rights law; deplores the unprecedented threats faced by the ICC, in particular owing to the imposition of sanctions by the United States on its judges and staff; recalls that international law and the competent independent legal authorities are essential in upholding international justice, ensuring accountability and combating impunity, which are necessary preconditions of any reconciliation process and sustained peace;

Or. en

Amendment 41
Rima Hassan, Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Marc Botenga, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
29. Expresses serious concern about the human rights situation in illegally occupied territories, including in EU territory, and in cases of protracted conflicts and the multiple frozen and invisible conflicts, and calls for effective measures to prevent grave human rights abuses on the ground;	29. Expresses serious concern about the human rights situation in illegally occupied territories, including in EU territory, and in cases of protracted conflicts and the multiple frozen and invisible conflicts such as those in Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and calls for effective measures to prevent grave human rights abuses on the ground;

Or. en

Amendment 42
Isabel Serra Sánchez, Irene Montero, Danilo Della Valle, Hanna Gedin, Jonas Sjöstedt, Per Clausen, João Oliveira
on behalf of The Left Group

Report A10-0262/2025
Francisco Assis
Human rights and democracy in the world and the European Union's policy on the matter – annual report 2025
(2025/2166(INI))

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29 a (new)

Motion for a resolution	Amendment
	29a. Deplores the flagrant human rights violations committed in the occupied territories of Western Sahara, including the violation of freedom of expression and assembly, the torture and ill-treatment reported by political prisoners, the unfair trials, the repression during demonstrations (including cases of torture and killings), and the prohibition of free entry to the occupied territories for observers and the international press; stresses that Western Sahara is a separate and distinct territory in relation to any State, including Morocco; strongly calls for the EU and its Member States to support the self-determination and decolonisation efforts of the Sahrawi people by ensuring an urgent, just and lasting solution to the conflict in Western Sahara, based on the right to self-determination of the Saharawi people and in accordance with the relevant UN resolutions; recalls the CJEU rulings declaring the EU-Morocco Association Agreement inapplicable to Western Sahara owing to the lack of consent from the Sahrawi people, and urges the EU and its Member States to suspend the EU-Morocco Association Agreement;

Or. en