Recommendation on EU-China political relations
(2025/2117(INI))

Motion for a resolutionParagraph 1 – point ayMotion for a resolution*

ay) increase public diplomacy efforts in China to provide authentic information about the EU's policies and actions, and work to strengthen knowledge of China in all EU institutions; emphasise, while exchanges between European and Chinese universities are in place, the importance of clear guidance for engagement between EU universities and Chinese entities; strengthen the coordination and coherence of policies across EU Member States and institutions in order to develop a common and coherent strategy towards China; ensure that such a strategy includes enhanced coordination among Member States on their main political leaders' visits to China and the main messages addressed to the Chinese leadership so as to avoid political fragmentation; adopt a unitary and coordinated strategy to diplomatically engage with China, firmly protect the EU geopolitical and economic interests, improve bilateral relations and pursue mutually beneficial cooperation;

ay) increase public diplomacy efforts in China to provide authentic information about the EU's policies and actions, and work to strengthen knowledge of China in all EU institutions; emphasise, while exchanges between European and Chinese universities are in place, the importance of clear guidance for engagement between EU universities and Chinese entities; underline that relations with China must respect the competences, national interests and sovereign foreign policy choices of the Member States; stress that coordination at EU level should complement, rather than replace, bilateral diplomacy conducted by Member States; reject attempts to impose a uniform foreign policy approach, given that Member States have differing legitimate economic, diplomatic and strategic interests;
